NOTICE

DISRUPTION OF PUBLIC TRUSTEE PROCEEDINGS

Any person that is disruptive at sale can be asked to leave. The Public Trustee has the authority to prohibit such persons from attending the sale. The failure to leave this public building after being asked to do so, may be reported to law enforcement officials.

Please be aware that it is unlawful to fail to leave the premises of a public building following a request to do so if the conduct of a person disrupts, impairs, interferes with or obstructs the lawful missions, processes, procedures or functions being carried on in the public building.

Colorado Revised Statutes 18-9-110 - no person shall willfully disrupt proceedings conducted by an official in any public building. A person may not refuse to leave upon being requested by the public official. Any person who violates any of the provisions of this section commits a class 2 misdemeanor.

C.R.S. 18-9-110 Public Buildings – trespass, interference – penalty.

(2) No person shall, at or in any such building, willfully impede any public official or employee in the lawful performance of duties or activities through the use of restraint, abduction, coercion, or intimidation or by force and violence or threat thereof.

(3) No person shall willfully refuse or fail to leave any such public building upon being requested to do so by the chief administrative officer or his designee charged with maintaining order in such public building, if the person has committed, is committing, threatens to commit, or incites others to commit any act which did, or would if completed, disrupt, impair, interfere with, or obstruct the lawful missions, processes, procedures, or functions being carried on in the public building. (A person may not refuse to leave the public building upon being requested by the public official.)

(4) No person shall, at any meeting or session conducted by any judicial, legislative, or administrative body or official at or in any public building, willfully impede, disrupt, or hinder the normal proceedings of such meeting or session by any act of intrusion into the chamber or other areas designated for the use of the body or official conducting the meeting or session or by any act designed to intimidate, coerce, or hinder any member of such body or official engaged in the performance of duties at such meeting or session. (No person shall willfully disrupt normal proceedings conducted by an administrative official in any public building.)

(8) Any person who violates any of the provisions of this section commits a class 2 misdemeanor.
